

The Money App Matchmaker Checklist for Teens

Ready to find a finance app that helps you level up your money game?

Use these questions to make sure it's got the features you need.

The goal is to answer "yes" to most of the questions.

Keeps it real time

- ☐ Can I see how much money I have right now, without waiting?

Budgeting that doesn't suck

- ☐ Does the app make budgeting less of a drag and more of a blast?

Goal-crushing tools

- ☐ Can I set savings goals for the stuff I want and track them easily?

My style, my look

- ☐ Does the app design speak to me?

Learning that's not lame

- ☐ Does the app offer cool ways to learn about money, like quizzes?

Debit card power

- ☐ Is there an associated debit card I can use online and at the mall?

Protects my info

- ☐ Is the app secure and trustworthy?

No hidden fees☐ Are the costs of using the app clear?Parent approved☐ Does it let my parents stay in the loop without being overbearing?Staying social☐ Can I connect with my friends in the app to complete challenges or split bills?User praise☐ Does the app have lots of users and glowing reviews?Support when I need it☐ Are there customer service reps on standby if I lose my card or something in the app breaks?

Federally Insured by NCUA.

