Mortgage Programs Are Available to Help

There are a variety of programs available to help you resolve your delinquency and keep your home. You may be eligible to refinance or modify your mortgage to make your payments and terms more manageable, for instance, lowering your monthly payment to make it more affordable. Or, if you have missed a few payments, you may qualify for a temporary (or permanent) solution to help you get your finances back on track. Depending on your circumstances, staying in your home may not be possible. However, a short sale or deed-in-lieu of foreclosure may be a better choice than foreclosure – see the table below for more information:

OPTION	OVERVIEW	BENEFIT
Reinstatement	Pay the total amount you owe, in a lump sum payment and by a specific date. This may follow a forbearance plan as described below.	Allows you to avoid foreclosure by bringing your mortgage current if you can show you have funds that will become available at a specific date in the future.
Repayment Plan	Pay back your past-due payments together with your regular payments over an extended period of time.	Allows you time to catch up on late payments without having to come up with a lump sum.
Forbearance Plan	Make reduced mortgage payments or no mortgage payments for a specific period of time.	Allows you time to improve your financial situation and get back on your feet.
Skip Pay (Availability varies by Investor/ Insurer)	Defer repayment of one or two past due principal and interest payments, which will be due and payable at the maturity of the mortgage loan or earlier upon the sale or transfer of the property, refinance of the mortgage loan, or payoff of the interest-bearing unpaid principal balance.	Allows you to bring your mortgage current by delaying repayment of past due principal and interest amounts without changing other terms of your mortgage.
Payment Deferral (Availability varies by Investor/ Insurer)	Defer repayment of past due principal, interest, escrow and corporate advance amounts (when applicable), which will be due and payable at the maturity of the mortgage loan or earlier upon the sale or transfer of the property, refinance of the mortgage loan, or payoff of the interest-bearing unpaid principal balance.	Allows you to bring your mortgage current by delaying repayment of past due principal, interest, escrow, and corporate advance amounts (when applicable) without changing other terms of your mortgage.
Modification	Receive modified terms on your mortgage to make it more affordable or manageable after successfully making the reduced payment during a “trial period” (i.e., completing a three [or four] month trial period plan).	Permanently modifies your mortgage so that your payments or terms are more manageable as a permanent solution to a long-term or permanent hardship.
Short Sale	Sell your home and pay off a portion of your mortgage balance when you owe more on the home than it is worth.	Allows you to transition out of your home without going through foreclosure. In some cases, relocation assistance may be available.
Deed-in-Lieu of Foreclosure	Transfer the ownership of your property to us.	Allows you to transition out of your home without going through foreclosure. In some cases, relocation assistance may be available. This is useful when there are no other liens on your property.

Frequently Asked Questions

For Your Information Only - Do Not Return with Your Request for Financial Information

1. Why Did I Receive This Application?

You received this Application because we have not received one or more of your monthly mortgage payments and want to help you keep your home if at all possible. We are sending this information to you now so that we can work with you to quickly resolve any temporary or long-term financial challenge you face to making all of your late mortgage payments.

2. What Is Foreclosure?

Foreclosure is the loss of your home through a legal process where your mortgage servicer or a third party acquires the property at foreclosure sale.

3. What Are the Consequences of Foreclosure?

You must move or you will be evicted from the property. It may be as long as seven years before you are eligible for another mortgage. You and any additional borrower listed on the mortgage may experience negative credit implications.

4. Where Can I Find More Information on Foreclosure Prevention?

Please see the Avoiding Foreclosure attachment in this Application for more information, or you can contact Pentagon Federal Credit Union at 1-800-585-9055 Ext: 3502. Additional foreclosure prevention information is provided by HUD at https://www.hud.gov/topics/avoiding_foreclosure, or Fannie Mae at KnowYourOptions.com or Freddie Mac at myhome.freddiemac.com/

5. Will It Cost Money to Get Help?

There should never be a fee from your servicer or qualified counselor to obtain assistance or information about foreclosure prevention options. However, foreclosure prevention has become a target for scam artists. Be wary of companies or individuals offering to help you for a fee, and never send a mortgage payment to any company other than the one listed on your monthly mortgage statement or one designated to receive your payments under a state assistance program.

6. What Happens Once I Have Sent the Request for Financial Information to You?

We will contact you within five business days of our receipt of your Request for Financial Information to confirm that we have received your Application and will review it to determine whether it is complete. Within five business days of receipt of your request, we will send you a notice of incompleteness in the event there is any missing information or documentation that you must still submit. We cannot guarantee that you will receive any (or a particular type of) assistance.

Within 30 days of receipt of a complete Request for Financial Information, we will let you know which foreclosure alternatives, if any, are available to you and will inform you of your next steps to accept our offer. However, if you submit your complete Request for Financial Information less than 37 days prior to a scheduled foreclosure sale date, we will strive to process your request as quickly as possible, but you may not receive a notice of incompleteness or a decision on your request prior to sale. Please submit your Request for Financial Information as soon as possible.

7. What Happens to My Mortgage While You Are Evaluating My Request for Financial Information?

You remain obligated to make all mortgage payments as they come due, even while we are evaluating the types of assistance that may be available.

8. Will the Foreclosure Process Begin If I Do Not Respond to this Letter?

If you disregard your mortgage servicer's notices, your mortgage servicer may refer your mortgage to foreclosure as authorized by your mortgage documents and applicable law.

Mortgage Financial Hardship Application

9. What Happens If I Have Waited Too Long and My Property Has Been Referred to an Attorney for Foreclosure? Should I Still Contact You?

Yes, the sooner the better! If you wish to keep your home, contact your mortgage servicer immediately. You may also contact a HUD-approved housing counselor (see Additional Resources on page 2) and request a three-way call that would include you, the HUD-approved housing counselor, and your mortgage servicer to discuss your hardship. A HUD-approved housing counselor can also provide free advice on debt management.

10. Can I Still Be Evaluated for Mortgage Assistance If My Property Is Scheduled for a Foreclosure Sale?

Yes, but it is important that you reach out to your servicer as soon as possible to discuss potential options. If your mortgage servicer receives your complete Mortgage Assistance Application with only 37 or fewer calendar days before the scheduled foreclosure sale, there is no guarantee that your servicer will be able to evaluate you for mortgage assistance in time to stop the foreclosure sale.

Even if your mortgage servicer approves you for a foreclosure alternative prior to a sale, a court with jurisdiction over foreclosure proceedings (if any) or public official charged with carrying out the sale may not be able to halt the scheduled sale.

11. Will My Property Be Sold at a Foreclosure Sale If I Accept a Foreclosure Alternative?

No. The property will not be sold at a foreclosure sale once you accept a foreclosure alternative, such as a forbearance or repayment plan, and comply with all requirements.

12. Will My Credit Score Be Affected by My Late Payments or Being in Default?

The delinquency status of your loan will be reported to credit reporting agencies as well as your entry into a Repayment Plan, Forbearance Plan, or Trial Period Plan in accordance with the requirements of the Fair Credit Reporting Act and the Consumer Data Industry Association requirements.

13. Will My Credit Score Be Affected If I Accept a Foreclosure Prevention Option?

While the effect on your credit will depend on your individual credit history, credit scoring companies generally would consider entering into a plan with reduced payments as increasing your credit risk. As a result, entering into a plan with reduced payments may adversely affect your credit score, particularly if you are current on your mortgage or otherwise have a good credit score.

14. What If I Acquired an Ownership Interest in the Property, Such as Through Death, Divorce, or Legal Separation?

You should contact us as soon as possible. We are here to help you adjust to these events and provide you with information on where to send the mortgage payments. Please contact us to obtain a list of documentation that is needed to confirm your identity and ownership interest in the property, and to discuss next steps.

15. Is Foreclosure Prevention Counseling Available?

Yes, HUD-approved counselors are available at (800) 569-4287 to provide you with the information and assistance you may need to avoid foreclosure. You can use the search tool at <http://www.hud.gov/counseling> to find a counselor near you. The toll-free Federal Information Relay Service number is (800) 877-8339 if you need a Telecommunication Device for the Deaf (TDD) to all the housing counseling line. HUD has a free brochure available upon request, "Save Your Home: Tips to Avoid Foreclosure", in English, Spanish, Chinese and Vietnamese.

16. I Have Seen Ads and Flyers From Companies Offering to Help Me Avoid Foreclosure for a Fee. Are These Companies on the Level?

Foreclosure prevention has become a target for scam artists. We suggest using the HUD website referenced in question 15 to locate a counselor near you. Also, please refer to the attached document called "Beware of Foreclosure Rescue Scams" for more information.

BEWARE OF FORECLOSURE RESCUE SCAMS — TIPS & WARNING SIGNS

For Your Information Only - Do Not Return with Your Request for Financial Information

Scam artists have stolen millions of dollars from distressed homeowners by promising immediate relief from foreclosure, or demanding cash for counseling services. HUD-approved counseling agencies provide the same services for FREE. If you receive an offer, information, or advice that sounds too good to be true, it probably is. If you have any doubts, contact your mortgage servicer. Don't let scammers take advantage of you, your situation, your house, or your money. Keep in mind, your mortgage servicer is not responsible for paying damages resulting from a scam. Remember, help is FREE.

How to Spot a Scam – beware of a company or person who:

- Asks for a fee in advance to work with your lender to modify, refinance or reinstate your mortgage.
- Guarantees they can stop a foreclosure or get your loan modified.
- Advises you to stop paying your mortgage company and pay them instead.
- Pressures you to sign over the deed to your home or sign any paperwork that you haven't had a chance to read, and you don't fully understand.
- Claims to offer "government-approved" or "official government" loan modifications.
- Asks you to release personal financial information online or over the phone and you have not been working with this company/person and/or do not know them.

How to Report a Scam – do one of the following:

- Go to https://www.hud.gov/program_offices/housing/prevent_loan_scams and fill out the Loan Modification Scam Prevention Network's (LMSPN) complaint form online and get more information on how to fight back, or go to <https://www.consumerfinance.gov/complaint/> to submit a complaint and get information on how to fight back.
- Call 1(888)995-HOPE (4673) and tell the counselor about your situation and that you believe you got scammed or know of a scam.
