This is an official disclosure required by the Electronic Fund Transfer Act to be given to members who may have an electronic fund transfer (EFT) transaction affecting their accounts. The disclosure covers the basic rights, liabilities, and responsibilities of consumers who perform transactions with a Debit or ATM Card and of financial institutions offering these services. Please read and retain this disclosure; it provides the procedures to be followed if you have an error or problem regarding your EFT services.

Your Liability Under the Electronic Fund Transfer Act for Unauthorized Access to Your Share Accounts
Contact PenFed Credit Union AT ONCE if you believe your Debit Card or ATM Card, or Personal Identification Number (PIN) has been lost or stolen. Telephoning is the best way of reducing your possible losses. You could lose all the money in your account(s) (plus your maximum overdraft line of credit), if you have transferred or may transfer money from your account without your permission, if you do not contact us within two (2) business days after you learn of the loss or theft, you can lose no more than $50 if someone uses your Card or PIN without your permission.

For transactions occurring at non-PenFed ATMs, the ATM operator/owner will extend the time periods. If you do not contact us within two (2) business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your Card or PIN, and we can prove we could have stopped someone from using your Card or PIN without your permission if you had told us, you could lose up to $100.

If your statement shows electronic fund transfers you did not make, contact us immediately. If you do not contact us within 60 days after the statement was delivered to you, you will not get back the money you lost after the 60 days. If we can prove we could have stopped someone from taking the money if you had contacted us in time.

For certain transactions involving the use of the Card without the use of your PIN, you may have no liability for unauthorized transfers. If a good reason (such as a long trip or a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we will extend the time periods.
