“We are excited to grow PenFed’s presence and services in Clarksville and surrounding communities,” said Michele Hart, vice president of branch operations with PenFed. “This branch will allow us to increase our presence in the area so that the community can have easier access to PenFed’s ‘best-in-class’ financial services—such as low interest rates on auto loans, credit cards, and mortgages.”

Annette Kalinowski, a long-time resident of Clarksville, was selected by PenFed to oversee branch operations for the new location. With more than 20 years of financial institution management experience, Kalinowski is actively involved in the Clarksville and Fort Campbell communities. Kalinowski has previously served as advisory board chair for the Better Business Bureau of Middle Tennessee, currently serves on the board of Hilldale Kiwanis, and is active with the Clarksville Chamber of Commerce.
