For the third year in a row, PenFed is sponsoring the Maryland Association of REALTORS® (MAR) 2014 Conference and Expo on September 8-10, 2014 at the Roland E. Powell Convention Center located in Ocean City, MD. The conference's theme this year is "All Roads Lead Home" and the event will feature a golf tournament, continuing education courses, certification courses, training, speaking sessions on a variety of industry related topics, an exposition hall and an installation banquet.

"PenFed is proud to sponsor MAR's conference for yet another year. It is extremely important for the REALTORS® who work in Maryland to have an event that helps them expand upon their knowledge base, update their education credentials, stay current on industry trends and network amongst their peers,” said Shashi Vohra, executive vice president & president affiliated businesses at PenFed. “We are excited to be a part of this event and encourage all attendees to take full advantage of the opportunities that MAR offers.”

PenFed Realty had a strong showing at the 2013 MAR Conference as several of its REALTORS® and staff were recognized for their efforts throughout the year. Donna Buchman, regional vice president and managing broker with PenFed Realty, was installed and sworn in to the MAR Board of Directors. In addition, several of PenFed Realty’s real estate agents won awards for involvement in the community.

“We’re excited, once again, to support the MAR Conference. As responsible corporate citizens, we feel it’s vitally important to give back to our industry. Through our alignment with MAR we can promote the professionalism of our practitioners, help bring value and expertise to every real estate transaction and support the protection of private property rights,” said Terri Bracciale, regional vice president at PenFed Realty. “We’re also very proud of our 2013 award recipients who displayed exceptional commitment and dedication to their communities and local associations.”
