Make Your Holiday Shopping Shine with a Highly Decorated Credit Card from PenFed

Award-winning performance sets PenFed's credit card programs apart from the competition.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., December 10, 2014— Pentagon Federal Credit Union (PenFed) announced today that its PenFed Platinum Rewards Visa Signature® Card is the latest standout in the credit union's credit card portfolio to garner multiple awards in 2014.

PenFed cardholders can expect generous rewards programs, super low purchase APRs, and little or nothing in fees. These unbelievable key features make PenFed's credit card programs the best choices for this holiday season and beyond.

“Our credit card programs are loaded with built-in quality and they have appeal across our membership demographic,” said Kevyn Myers, executive vice president and chief operating officer with PenFed. “Our members are our biggest champions. They are smart and they know and understand the value our card programs have built into them.”

“We also do our best to come up with ways to stack the deck in favor of our members when it comes to credit card products,” continued Myers. “Consistently offering our members the best products and financial services is ingrained in our culture. It captures the very essence of why PenFed credit cards are continually rated as some of the best products in the industry—and why carrying one of our cards is so desirable.”

PenFed's Platinum Rewards Visa Signature® Card is the latest Card to garner multiple awards in 2014. It was recently named:

- Best Travel Road Trip Rewards Card for Winter 2014 by CardHub
- Best Credit Cards for Gas 2014 by CardHub
- Named one of the 10 Best Rewards Credit Cards for 2014 by GoBankingRates.com

PenFed is known for its enduring commitment to continually create innovative financial products and services that save money, add value, and further the financial well-being of its members—and its credit card programs are no different.
