MEDIA ADVISORY

PenFed San Antonio Branch Grand Opening and Ribbon-Cutting Celebration

Pentagon Federal Credit Union is back in San Antonio, Texas. To celebrate the credit union's return to the community, a public, weeklong, grand opening celebration, with daily themed events, will be held March 16 through March 20, 2015.

After a four year branch absence in the community, Pentagon Federal Credit Union (PenFed) is bringing back branch operations to San Antonio community. Now it's time to celebrate with a full week of daily themed, public events.

The PenFed San Antonio branch team invites both the public and military communities to come tour the branch, enjoy daily giveaways, visit with the branch team, and meet local military and community leaders.

In addition to the daily events, the weeklong celebration will close the week of event festivities with an official ribbon-cutting ceremony on Friday, March 20, 2015.

The ribbon-cutting ceremony begins at 10:00 a.m., with an open house celebration to immediately follow and continue until 4 p.m.

"Our branch team is excited to meet with the residents of the San Antonio community. Please join us for a week of celebration and fun," said Manuel Serna, San Antonio branch manager for PenFed.

Please see the schedules below for additional grand opening event details.
